

Reflective Questions Challenges

Article 27: Every child has the right to a standard of living adequate for the child's physical, mental, spiritual, moral and social development.

- With whom do you feel happy?
- What makes a house a home?
- Name a few basic needs you find important.
- Who should take care of these?
- If your parents couldn't take care of you; who would?
- Do you have right to everything you like or want?
- Do you have to do anything for the people that take care of you?

Article 24:

Every child has the right to health care. This means the right to go to a doctor, but also to have clean drinking water.

- What do you need to grow up in a healthy way?
- What do you need and who takes care of you when you're ill?
- Do you also have the right to eat unhealthy but tasty food?
- What does food and drinking water have to do with infant mortality according to you?
- Do the children in your environment have enough healthy food?
- Who should make sure that children can get vaccinated?
- What can you do yourself to make sure you're healthy?

Article 22:

The right to protection and humanitarian assistance. Because a child is vulnerable and has the right to protection and safety.

- What do you need to feel safe?
- Name four things you would take with you if you had to move.
- What would be a reason to flee?
- What do you know about the refugees in a war?
- What do you know about refugees from poverty?
- Who is responsible for the children that have to go on the run?
- What rights do refugee children have?

Reflective Questions Challenges

Article 28: Every child has the right to education. This means going to school to learn together.

- Going to school is a right and an obligation. Why do you think this is?
- How important is it to you for every child to be able to go to school?
- What can you learn better in a school than outside of it?
- What can you learn better when you're not in school?
- What do you learn as a child from working and having a job?
- From who do you learn the most? Your friends, your family, or your teachers?
- What can be reasons for so many children not going to school?

Article 31: Every child has the right to leisure and play. Time in which you can decide for yourself what you want to do.

- Why is it important to be able to play?
- What do you learn from playing?
- If you don't want to go to football practice, but still have to go, can you still call it spare time?
- Do you also learn things in your spare time? Give a few examples.
- Who should make sure that you have enough spare time?

Article 32: Every child has the right to protection against child labour.

- Do you think you should be able to choose yourself between going to school and working?
- Does every child have to help his/her parents? With chores? With earning money?
- When is it good to let children have a job and earn money?
- Does a school have to protect you against working too hard?
- Should you earn money when you work hard at school?
- Are you required to work as a child when your parents don't make enough money?
- What can we do in our country to stop child labour in different countries?